Webutuck High School will be having Midterm exams and Regents during the week of January 22, 2019. The students will come in for these exams only. There will be no school for High school students (9-12) Tuesday, January 22, 2019, Wednesday, January 23, 2019, Thursday, January 24, 2019 and Friday, January 25, 2019. Please note that classes will still be in session for grades K-8.

Mid-term exams will allow us to assess a student's understanding mid-year. Mid-term exams will count as 10% of student's grade and Regents will count as 10% of grade.
