

Name _____

Roar! It's bad enough that Mom and Dad are heading to California, leaving Judy and Stink with Aunt Awful (er, Opal), but now two of Judy's friends are going Spitsville, too. Just when it looks like her summer is going to be boring—cureka!—Judy comes up with the most thrill-a-delic plan ever. Get ready for a race involving tightrope walking, Screen Monster riding, and way more! Add in a treasure hunt for Judy's teacher, a midnight stakeout, a runaway ice-cream truck, and a dash of Bigfoot, and what have you got? The Judy Moodiest summer ever!

Pick a project (or make up your own!) to do after you've read the book. Bring your project back in September to be displayed at Family Fun Night. All students who bring in a project will receive a special prize in the fall!

We and Bigfoot

Everyone in Judy Moody and the NOT Bummer Summer seems to be on the lookout for Bigfoot, but what do you think Bigfoot is really like? Make a poster or model of Bigfoot. Include as many details as you can to make Bigfoot really come alive! Include a list of all the ways you and Bigfoot are the same and different.

Keep Them Posted

In Judy Moody and the NOT Bummer Summer, when Rocky goes to circus camp and Amy up and leaves for Borneo, Judy thinks she is going to be way bored-e-o all summer. Receiving mail is so not-bummer! Share some fun by making a Judy Moody-inspired postcard for your friends. Be sure to put a creative design on the front and put a short message to your friend on the back all about your not so bummer summer.

Thrill-O-Rama

Judy Moody prepares a chart to track a summer of thrills for her and all her friends. Create your own charts of activities ranging from the most "thrilling" thing you have ever done to the "jamest." Try to think of as many experiences as you can. You can even assign thrill points to each event.

Art à la Opal

Aunt Opal and Judy turn garbage-can lids into hats that they eventually place on the lions at the library. Create your own art project using the lids of various items, such as margarine, yogurt, and frozen juice containers. Using clay, paint, glue, feathers, paper, and more, let your imagination soar and turn those lids into animals, flowers, hats, monsters . . . whatever you desire. This is a chance to turn trash into art à la Opal.

So Many Events

Judy Moody's Not Bummer Summer was full of exciting events! Make a model, poster, or mobile of all the important events that helped to change Judy's boring summer into a whirlwind of exciting events!

Student name _____ Grade as of 9/2022 _____

Fill in a marshmallow for each day you read a book over the summer. Bring your sheet to Family Fun Night in the fall to earn tickets for prizes!

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____

Date _____